

Announcing Angel Tree's Letter-Writing Club!

At Christmas, Angel Tree® helped your children's incarcerated parent give them Christmas gifts. And now Angel Tree wants to help your children stay in touch with their incarcerated parent.

It's easy when they become part of Angel Tree's letter-writing club!

All children who participate will get their very own letter-writing kit—which includes letter ideas and other special activities they can do with their parent through the mail.

They will also get to attend special letter-writing parties where they will play some fun games and get help writing letters if they need it. It's a fun way to get them into the habit of writing regularly.

Our first letter-writing party is coming up!

Please call _____ to let us know if your children can come. We want to make sure we have enough kits for everyone. We can provide transportation if needed.

We're excited about our new letter-writing club, and we hope it will help build stronger bonds between the children and their incarcerated parents.
