

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, every person is endowed with human dignity and value; and
- Whereas, redemption and second chances are American values; and
- Whereas, individuals returning from prison and those who have paid their debt after committing a crime face significant barriers, also known as collateral consequences; and
- Whereas, individuals with a criminal history often struggle to find housing, employment or education, regain voting rights, volunteer in their community, and pay for significant debt that arises as a result of their conviction and incarceration; and
- Whereas, The Council of State Governments reports that the number of legal collateral consequences of a criminal conviction exceeds 48,000; and
- Whereas, these barriers can contribute to recidivism, which increases victimization and decreases public safety; and
- Whereas, the stigma and legal barriers associated with a criminal record results in lost human capital and lost economic output for the United States; and
- Whereas, the designation of April as Second Chance Month would contribute to increased public awareness about the need for closure for those who have paid their debt, and opportunities for individuals, employers, congregations, and communities to extend second chances.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim April 2018 as:

Second Chance Month

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Eleventh day of April, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Eighteen, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Fifth year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor

By the Governor:

Mac Warner
Secretary of State
